

Privacy Notice

National and Community Co-operative Credit Union Limited, (The Credit Union), is a member-centric, financially-sound and technologically driven credit union, with its mission to “Build Wealth” that will improve the quality of life for our existing members, any new member in an existing financial relationship, and their families, through the provision of personalized financial solutions and advice.

At The Credit Union, we are committed to protecting your privacy. We ensure that the processing of your Personal Data is compliant with Jamaica’s Data Protection Act (JDPA), and any country-specific data protection laws and regulations to the extent applicable to The Credit Union. We have implemented several technical, organizational and physical measures to ensure the best protection for Personal Data processed through our website or with the use of our Services.

We have prepared this Privacy Notice to describe to you our practices regarding the personal information we collect from our members and users of our website.

This Privacy Notice describes how the Credit Union collects, uses, shares, and stores your Personal Data, and informs you of your rights regarding your Personal Data. This Privacy Notice applies to data we collect when you use our website, take part in any survey, access our products and services, or any other marketing initiatives.

When you visit our website, you are free to explore without providing any Personal Data about yourself. We only collect Personal Data from you when you register, subscribe to a service or fill out a form.

“Personal Data” means any information that allows someone to identify you, by way of your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, as well as any other non-public information about you that is associated with any of these.

“Anonymous Data” means data that is not associated with or linked to your Personal Data, and which does not, by itself, permit the identification of individual persons.

We collect Personal Data and Anonymous Data, as described above.

How we Collect Data

We may collect your Personal Data through the following means:

- Information you provide via our Website, Social Media Networks or Events:

We may collect any Personal Data that you choose to send to us or provide to us via our website, social media network or when registering or attending an event.

In operating our website, we may also collect the following types of Personal Data:

Log Data - This data may be processed for the purposes of operating our website, providing our services, ensuring the security of our website and services, maintaining back-ups of our databases, and communicating with you.

Google Analytics - We collect this data so that we can improve our website and access it.

Cookies - We may also use cookies and URL information to gather information regarding the date and time of your visit and the information for which you searched and which you viewed. "Cookies" are small pieces of information that a website sends to your computer's hard drive while you are viewing a web site. Upon your initial visit to the website, you will have the option of accepting or refusing cookies and you will be able to choose the type of cookie you accept or reject. You may also configure your browser to ensure no cookies are stored on your hard drive.

We may use both session Cookies (which expire once you close your web browser) and persistent Cookies (which stay on your computer until you delete them) to provide you with a more personal and interactive experience on our Site. Persistent Cookies can be removed by following Internet browser help file directions. Cookies may enable automatic logins when you visit in the future and may enable content customization.

Bases for Collecting Personal Data:

User Consent - We will always obtain your clear, informed and freely given consent before processing your Personal Data, except in circumstances where it is not possible to obtain your consent, but your Personal Data still needs to be processed (for example due to legal obligations we may have or to protect your vital interests, the public interest or to aid in the administration of justice). You may withdraw your consent at any time by the same method it was provided to us or by contacting our Data Protection Officer identified below.

Contractual Obligation - We may process your Personal Data in contemplation of entering into a contract with you or to fulfill our existing contractual obligations to you.

Legitimate Interest - We process your Personal Data in order to efficiently provide and market our services to you. However, we will not process your personal data where doing so poses a risk to your rights and freedoms and vital interests.

Legal Obligation- There may be instances when we will have to process your Personal Data in order to comply with the law. This may require us to process information about criminal convictions to investigate and gather intelligence on suspected financial crimes, fraud and threats and to share data with law enforcement and regulatory bodies. We are also legally obliged to assess affordability and suitability of credit for loans and other credit applications and throughout the duration of the relationship.

How We Use Your Personal Data

We may use the information we collect from you in connection with the services we provide for a range of reasons, including to:

- provide our products and services;
- process and complete transactions, and send related information, including transaction confirmations and records;
- manage our members' use of the services, respond to enquiries and comments and provide customer service and support;
- send alerts, updates, security notifications, and administrative communications;
- verify your identity, creditworthiness and the accuracy of the information provided;
- prevent criminal activity, fraud and money laundering;
- trace debtors and recover debts;
- investigate and prevent fraudulent activities, unauthorized access to our services, and other illegal activities; and
- for any other purposes about which we notify members and users.

Third Parties and International Data Transfers

Our website may contain links to other sites that are not operated by us. We have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third-party site or service. We may disclose your Personal Data to third parties to whom you expressly ask us to send your Personal Data or to third parties for whom you consent to us sending your personal information. Third parties include our partners, affiliates, service providers and professional advisors. Personal Data may also be shared with regulators in order to demonstrate compliance with legal obligations. Personal Data will only be shared with third parties to provide our services to you and/or to comply with legal obligations. These third parties do not retain, share, use or process personal data beyond the defined purpose of providing our services to you.

How we protect your personal data

NCCCU is committed to protecting the security of your Personal Data. We (and our third-party service providers) use a variety of industry-standard security technologies and procedures, as well as organizational measures to help protect your Personal Data from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure, such as:

- We use vulnerability scanning and/or scanning to PCI standards.

- We use regular Malware Scanning.
- Your Personal Data is contained behind secured networks and is only accessible by a limited number of persons who have special access rights to such systems and are required to keep the information confidential. In addition, all sensitive information you supply is encrypted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology.
- We implement a variety of security measures when a user enters, submits, or accesses their information to maintain the safety of your personal information.
- All transactions are processed through a gateway provider and are not stored or processed on our servers.

However, no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure. Therefore, while The Credit Union uses reasonable efforts to protect your Personal Data, we cannot guarantee its absolute security

Your Rights

Under Jamaica's Data Protection Act data subjects enjoy the following rights:

Right to access your personal data – You are entitled to make a written request to us to be informed whether your Personal Data is being processed by us. You are also entitled to request a copy of your data. You may also request that your Personal Data be transferred to a third party;

- Right to be informed about automated decision making - You may request in writing that decisions regarding your Personal Data that have been made solely on the basis of automated processing be reconsidered with human involvement;
- Right to prevent processing - You are entitled to make a written request to us to cease or not to begin processing your Personal Data in a specific manner or for a specific purpose; and
- Right to rectification - You may request that inaccuracies in your Personal Data be rectified. "Rectification" means amend, block, erase or destroy, as may be required to correct the inaccuracy. You may request that your personal data be erased on the expiration of any applicable retention period.

Retention Policy

We only retain your Personal Data for as long as it is needed to provide our services to you. We also retain Personal Data in line with legal requirements which may stipulate retention periods for different categories of Personal Data. We typically therefore retain members' Personal Data for a minimum of seven years following the date of transaction or termination of customer relationship.

We may also keep your data for longer than seven years if we cannot delete it for legal, regulatory or technical reasons.

Notifiable data breaches

We take data breaches very seriously. We will endeavour to meet the 72-hour deadline as imposed by the JDPa to report any data breach to the Information Commissioner. Further, where there is likely to be a high risk to your rights we will endeavour to contact you without undue delay.

Our report will inform you of:

- the nature of the security breach;
- the measures taken or proposed to be taken to mitigate or address the possible adverse effects of the breach; and
- the name, address and other relevant contact information of our Data Protection Officer or other designated representative.

We will review every incident and/or breach and take action to prevent future incidents or breaches.

Children's privacy

Our services are not offered to persons under the age of 18 without parental or guardian consent. Any information that is in breach of this provision will be deleted.

If you become aware that a child has provided us with information, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

Data privacy and protection is an ongoing responsibility and so this Privacy Policy is subject to occasional revision to ensure that it remains in line with the ever-evolving regulatory and security landscape. NCCCU therefore reserves the right, at our sole discretion, to modify or replace any part of this Privacy Policy. It is your responsibility to check this Privacy Policy periodically for changes. The last date of modification will be noted at the bottom. Continued use of our Site or Services indicates your acknowledgement that it is your responsibility to review this Privacy Policy periodically and become aware of any modifications. Changes to this policy are effective once they have been uploaded to our website.
